eScholarship provides open access, scholarly publishing services to the University of California and delivers a dynamic research platform to scholars worldwide.

“Since we started uploading our research to eScholarship, the number of people accessing our publications has grown exponentially.”

“We simply could not have succeeded in bringing this information to scientists, the public, and policy makers without eScholarship.”

R. Bradley Sears
Executive Director
The Williams Institute
UCLA School of Law

Samuel N. Luoma
Editor-in-Chief
San Francisco Estuary and Watershed Science
UC Davis
