

defining the Internet architecture for distance learning

<http://www.imsproject.org>

with centers in North America, Europe, Australia, and Asia

SPECIFICATON LIST

IMS Specification	What the specification covers
Meta-data v1.0, v1.1	Attributes to describe learning resources
Enterprise Interworking v1.0, v1.1	Formats for exchanging student and course information between system components
Content Packaging v1.0	Instructions for wrapping and exchanging learning content
Question and Test Interoperability v1.0	Formats for constructing and exchanging assessment information
IMS Specifications under development
Content Management	Specifications for the behavior of content at run-time
Learner Information Packaging and Exchange	Information about learners
Instructional Design	Definitions of learning scenarios and interactions
Accessibility	Specifications for use by disabled and disadvantaged learners

BECOMING AN IMS MEMBER

Visit the IMS public web site at <http://www.imsproject.org> or contact any IMS staff member to discuss how IMS membership will benefit you.

Ed Walker
Chief Executive Officer
ewalker@imsproject.org

Kevin Riley
European Development
kriley@imsproject.org

Thor Anderson
Director of Development
tanderson@imsproject.org

Bruce Papazian
Member Advocate
bpapazian@imsproject.org