

CNI Digital Scholarship Planning Webinar Series

Closing Panel

October 13, 2020

Joan K. Lippincott, Associate Executive Director

Emerita

Coalition for Networked Information

Thank you

Panelists

- * Dan Cohen
- * Tom Hickerson
- * Patricia Hswe

CNI

- * Cliff Lynch
- * Diane Goldenberg-Hart
- * Jackie Eudell
- * Sharon Adams
- * Angelo Cruz
- * Beth Secrist

The Importance of Digital Scholarship Programs

- * They support the research, learning, and service missions of the university
- * They expand the “idea of the possible,” moving the library beyond its service provider role and even beyond its collaborator role – Greg Raschke

The Importance of Digital Scholarship Programs

- * They provide opportunities for students and faculty in all disciplines to participate in new forms of research, learning, and communication of research results because the library is neutral ground

A Library-wide program

- * Administrative leadership
 - * Communication to staff
 - * Establishing DS as a priority
 - * Re-thinking staff roles

Collaboration at the institutional level

- * A seat at the institutional table
- * Institution-wide planning
- * Seeking good partners
- * Providing researchers and students with a coherent, university-wide program

Collaboration within the library

- * Core team of DS staff
- * Clear roles and responsibilities for staff in instruction, library IT, metadata services, Special Collections, etc.
- * Rewards for participation

Creating a program for your institution

- * Needs assessment
- * What are critical areas for your institution?
- * How will you address diversity, equity, and inclusion?
- * What staff are available?
- * Where should you start?
- * How will you know if you are successful?

Space and place

- * Many things are possible in the virtual environment
- * Place and space remain highly desirable as integral parts of programs
 - * Creating community
 - * Peer learning
 - * A window into what libraries offer
 - * Exhibits of products of digital scholarship

Digital Scholarship Planning

- * Webinar series components
 - * Videos
 - * Campus discussion guides
- * Plan for re-opening
- * Communicate with staff, your user community, and current and new partners

Thank you!

- * Please complete evaluation form – you will receive an email this week with a link
- * Please send comments and suggestions to me at joan@cni.org
- * Thanks to all of the presenters and participants!