KU's Open Access Liaisons

- OA liaisons TO THE LIBRARIES from departments to further open access objectives.
- Subject liaisons FROM THE LIBRARIES working with the Center for Digital Scholarship & the Scholarly Communications Librarian to make connections departments and faculty.

2012 – Liaisons Performance Goal

(2013, Now in Position Description)

Understand issues and practices implicit in scholarly communications

- Increase understanding through professional development
- Demonstrate understanding of issues in scholarly communications through relevant actions.

*broader than open access policy

2012 – Liaisons, Shared Goal

Examples of Library Liaison Actions:

- Offering Royal Society of Chemistry (RSC) author fee vouchers to faculty in my area.
- Talked to the Director of the Museum Studies program about routinely depositing Internship Reports into KU ScholarWorks

2012 – Liaisons, Shared Goal

- During interviews of potential candidates I have made it a point to ask a question of some kind about open access.
- I have encouraged faculty to submit their works to ScholarWorks. Many of them have submitted. I point out OA and ScholarWorks to new faculty.

2012 – Liaisons, Shared Goal

- Lead effort to transform “Kansas Working Paper in Linguistics (KWPL)” [a graduate student publication] from a print publication to a KU ScholarWorks collection.
- Accompanied the scholarly communications librarian when she presented at a departmental faculty meeting.

2012 – Liaisons, Shared Goal

I introduced the topic of open access to [a] group of incoming graduate students ... This was a rewarding discussion because the students quickly grasped the importance of sharing scholarship and the chilling effect that high costs could have upon the entire scholarly process.

Faculty Stories, Open Access

- Discussion of how to capture faculty experiences.
